

MAIN HIGHLIGHTS OF THIS ROUTE:

1 DEVONPORT

Seaside charm and quiet villa-lined streets, Devonport provides a perfect summer's afternoon ride. The village is home to a collection of cafés, art galleries, quaint shops and The Vic theatre. Check out the architecturally acclaimed library, and admire the pohutukawa trees planted along the waterfront to commemorate the coronation of King Edward VII.

2 TORPEDO BAY NAVAL MUSEUM

Devonport has been a naval base since 1841. The Navy Museum at Torpedo Bay celebrates this rich local history and that of New Zealand's maritime roots. History buffs will enjoy taking the time to walk around Fort Takapuna and Maungauika-North Head, both now Department of Conservation reserves.

3 MAUNGAUIKA - NORTH HEAD

In addition to providing one of the most stunning views of the Hauraki Gulf, Maungauika - North Head, has a fascinating history. First a Maori settlement, and then as a coastal fortification from 1870 to the end of WWII.

4 CHELTENHAM BEACH

A lovely sandy shallow beach, perfect for an afternoon swim. Rest in the shade of a pohutukawa tree or pop up to the shops where you'll find everything from delicious eats to antiques. Pedal up to Fort Takapuna along the shared path, or cut through by the French bakery, for a flat on-road ride to Narrow Neck.

7 NARROW NECK BEACH

Home of the Wakatere Boating Club. On Sundays, dinghies sail around the bay with Rangitoto in the background. There is also a café and playground, it's an easy ride from Devonport.

12 BAYWATER BRIDGE

Beyond Takapuna Grammar there are stunning views of the gulf. Loop back through Northboro Reserve and over Bayswater Bridge past historic O'Neill's Point Cemetery. If you need refueling, Eversleigh Road's Little & Friday is famous for their cream filled doughnuts.
